

Workshop on (New-ish) Methods for Exploring Group Inequalities

Thursday/Friday 19-20th October 2017

Location: The Edge Arts Studio (2nd floor)

University of Bath

Timetable

Thursday 19 October 2017

9.00 – 9.30	Registration
9.30 – 9.45	Welcome address – Lynn Prince Cooke
SESSION 1: UNCONDITIONAL V. CONDITIONAL QUANTILE REGRESSION
9.45 – 10.35	Seminar from Markus Gangl on ‘Unconditional quantile regression for the estimation of the motherhood penalty’
10.35 – 11.25	Gabriele Mari ‘Gender, parenthood, and wages: Unequal paths and consequences along the earnings distribution in the UK and Germany’
11.25 – 11.40	Coffee break
11.40 – 12.30	NEWFAMSTRAT: ‘The fatherhood premium among British men’
12.30 – 13.30	Lunch
13.30 – 14.20	NEWFAMSTRAT: ‘Divorce and wages among British men: Cause or consequence?’
14.20 – 15.10	’Seminar from Andreas Haupt on ‘Unconditional quantile regression for the estimation of gender wage gaps’
15.10 – 15.25	Coffee break
SESSION 2: FIELD CORRESPONDENCE STUDIES: PARENTHOOD
15.25 – 16.15	Michael Gähler ‘Employer discrimination in Sweden’
16.15 – 17.05	Lena Hipp (in absentia) ‘Double jeopardy? Experimental evidence on employers’ unequal treatment of mothers and fathers with short vs. long parental leave in Germany’

Friday 20 October 2017

SESSION 3: FIELD CORRESPONDENCE STUDIES: RACE/ETHNICITY
9.30 – 10.20	Miriam Schmaus ‘Ethnic differences in labour market outcomes and foreign accented speech: (Why) do speech cues matter in hiring decisions?’
10.20 – 11.10	Javier Polavieja et al. ‘Country of origin phenotype? Unpacking discrimination in the Spanish labour market’
11.10 – 11.30	Closing comments – Lynn Prince Cooke
	WORKSHOP PORTION ENDS
11.45 – 12.45	NEWFAMSTRAT Advisory board meeting (Restricted attendance)